

Barking Havering and Redbridge Hospitals NHS Trust

Caroline Curtin
Medical Education Manager

What can BHR offer you?

- Education Centres on both sites
- Weekly teaching programmes
- Structured supervision, support and learning opportunities, career guidance
- Integrated Education and Learning Directorate
- Doctors Mess
- Pastoral Support Services

What can BHR offer you?

- Large Trust on London/Essex Borders.
- Bed base – 1,450
- 2 A & E Departments
- We serve a large & diverse population of approx 700,000+
- Joint Cancer Centre with Barts
- Regional Neurosciences Centre
- High Risk Obstetric Unit – annual delivery rate 10000+
- Chronic Fatigue Unit
- Independent Sector Treatment Centre at King George

The Trust Sites

- Queen's Hospital Acute Services, Women's and Children's Services, Regional Neurosciences Centre, Specialist Surgery, Level 3 Neonatal Unit, Regional Cancer Services
- King George, Acute Services, Rehab, Care of the Elderly, Urology, Low Risk Obstetric Services
- Satellite Sites, covering Breast Care, Outpatients services, Diagnostics

About the Area

- Situated on the borders of London and Essex
- Good road/rail/air links
- Part of Thames Gateway Regeneration Scheme
- Good Leisure and Retail Facilities within Ilford and Romford Town Centres

Foundation Year 1 Placements

- General Medicine
 - Cardiology
 - Respiratory
 - Gastroenterology
 - Renal
 - Endocrine
 - Stroke/Rehab
 - Care of the Elderly
- General Surgery
 - Vascular
 - Breast
 - Gastrointestinal
 - Urology
- Obs and Gynae

F1 Accommodation

- Queen's based doctors:

Housing in self-contained one bedroom flats at Swan Accommodation, Romford adjacent to Queens

- King George based doctors:

Housing in on-site accommodation

FOR MORE INFO

- Come and meet our team for further information at our Stand and to answer any questions that you may have.