

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Acute Medicine
The department	The Acute medicine department at the Royal London hospital comprises 6 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital 11C, 11E & 11F
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Drs Frankton, O'Callaghan, Ip, Skene, Vaid & Emmanuel
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 8am - 4pm Ward Based Late shifts 12.30 – 09.30 There is an inpatient ward round and post take ward round every day (running parallel) 08.30 – 12.30 with CT / SpR There are also board rounds FY1 teaching is Wed 12.45 – 1.45pm
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel, London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Endocrinology
The department	The Department of Endocrinology of Barts & the London NHS Trust, based at St Bartholomew's Hospital, provides secondary and tertiary endocrine services to East London, The City and further afield including international referrals. The department has developed a high international reputation for its research, teaching and clinical activities. It employs a multidisciplinary approach incorporating adult and paediatric clinical endocrinology and basic science in biochemistry and molecular biology to facilitate the investigation and treatment of endocrine disorders throughout the lifespan. There are 10 dedicated endocrinology beds in a purpose-built ward facility associated with an intensive investigation facility of 6 couches. The dynamic and other special endocrine investigations are performed by a designated team of specialist endocrine nurses, supervised by doctors in training and 3 consultants. http://www.bartsendocrinology.co.uk/resources/SHO+induction+march+2011.doc
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in endocrinology include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Garrod / Francis Fraser Ward 3 rd Floor King George V block, Barts
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the	Drs Akker and Drake

placement
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 8.30am – 5.30pm Ward Based. Mon 08.30 Consultant Ward Round 12.30 Journal Club / Audit Club / Endocrine club PM: Ward Work Prepare and distribute patient lists for Radiology meeting Tues Ward Work Wed 08.30 – 10.00 X-Ray meeting Ward Work Thu 08.30 Consultant Ward Round (Teaching WR) 12.30 FY1 teaching 14.00 Ward Work Fri 08.30 Neurosurgery meeting Ward Work 13.30 MDT (SpR led) 14.30 Dept academic clinical meeting FY1s are not part of the on call rota
Employer information	Employer Barts and The London NHS Trust Placement based at

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Health Care of the Elderly
The department	The Dept comprises 5 Consultants. There are interests in falls, stroke, dementia and ortho geriatrics
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital 14E and 10E
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Drs Davies, Radhamanohar, Andrews, Dow & Sivapathasundaram
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based Mon: 09.00 Consultant ward round / MDT Tues: 09.00 Consultant ward round / MDT Wed: 12.30 – 13.45 FY1 teaching Thurs: 09.00 Consultant ward round Fri: 14.00 Consultant ward round FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm, weekend cover 9am – 9pm and one post take weekend 8am – 3pm
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust.

	The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel, London
--	--

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Haematological Oncology
The department	The Dept comprises 12 Consultants all with academic appointments providing care for all haematological malignancies including bone marrow transplantation
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in haem onc include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Involvement in complex diagnostic pathways • Management of immuno-compromised and severe infections • Use of antibiotics • Use of blood products • Management of critically ill patients • Breaking bad news • Care of the dying
Where the placement is based	St Bartholomews Hospital, Bodley Scott 1 East Wing, Luke Ward 4a and Bodley Scott Day unit 4b KGV block
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Profs Gribben & Cavenargh, Drs Agrawal, Auer, Cotter, Davies, De Vos, Le Dieu, Montoto, Oakervee, Smith & Toussig
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching programme. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this	Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based placement	Mon: 09.00 Consultant/SpR ward round Tues: 08.30 MDT 10.30 Consultant/SpR ward round 13.00 Dept Teaching Wed: 09.00 Consultant/SpR ward round 17.00 Dept Seminar (optional) Thurs: 09.00 Consultant/SpR ward round 12.30 Generic FY1 teaching Fri: 08.30 Lymphoma & X-Ray meetings 09.00 Consultant/SpR ward round 12.30 Dept meeting & Teaching 16.30 Weekend Handover FY1s are not included in the on call rota

Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the St Bartholomews Hospital West Smithfield London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Oncology
The department	The Dept comprises 20 Consultants all with academic appointments providing care for all solid tumour malignancies including bone marrow transplantation
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in oncology include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Involvement in complex diagnostic pathways • Management of immuno-compromised and severe infections • Use of antibiotics • Use of blood products • Management of critically ill patients • Breaking bad news • Care of the dying
Where the placement is based	St Bartholomews Hospital, wards 5A & 5B and ward 7A KGV block
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Drs Roylance, Gallagher, Slater & Sibtain

Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 generic teaching programme. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Each F1 doctor is allocated to one of 3 clinical teams (teams 1-3) thus day to day timetable varies. Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based includes a daily ward round with SpR, twice weekly consultant ward round (increasingly to see new admissions). Departmental teaching is on Tuesdays at 2pm and opportunities to attend research seminars at 5pm on Wednesdays. FY1 teaching is Thurs 12.30 – 1.30pm Attendance at the many outpatient clinics and MDT is strongly encouraged for educational purposes.
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the St Bartholomews Hospital West Smithfield London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Cardiology / Respiratory Medicine
The department	The cardiology and respiratory medicine firms at the Royal London share two wards. There are 7 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital 13E and 13F
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Drs Lloyd-Owen, Ali, Simcock, White, Wragg, Davies, Lobo
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 8am - 4pm Ward Based. Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Mon: 12.30 – 13.30 Respiratory meeting Tues: Wed: 12.30 – 13.45 FY1 teaching Thurs: 12.30 Hot Cases Fri: FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm in cardiology / respiratory, weekend cover 9am – 9pm and one post take weekend 8am – 3pm

Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel, London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Gastroenterology / Metabolic Medicine
The department	The gastroenterology and metabolic medicine firms at the Royal London share ward 14F. There are 12 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital 14F
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Metabolic Medicine: Drs Chowdhury, Coppack, Akker, Prof Drake; Gastroenterology and Hepatology: Drs Langmead, Preston, Lindsay Glynn, Marley Kooner and Prof Foster
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 8am - 4pm Ward Based. Both Gastroenterology and Metabolic Medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Mon: Tues: Wed: 12.30 – 13.45 FY1 teaching Thurs: 12.30 Hot Cases Fri: 12.30 – Diabetes meeting FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm in metabolic / care of the elderly / gastroenterology, weekend cover 9am – 9pm and one post take weekend 8am – 3pm

Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel, London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Renal
The department	The Dept comprises 14 Consultants, 10 physicians and 4 surgeons managing acute kidney injury, dialysis related complications as well as transplantation.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in renal medicine include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Management of immunocompromised patients • Management of critically ill patients • Acute care following renal transplantation • Haemodialysis and peritoneal dialysis related complications
Where the placement is based	Renal Wards 9 th floor Royal London Hospital
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Prof Chesser
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching programme. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Working Day Monday – Friday 8.30am - 6pm Ward Based. Daily handover meetings occur every day at 08.30am and ward rounds at 09.30am. Ward rounds are consultant led on Tues and Fri and led by the SpR on Mon, Wed and Thurs. FY1 teaching is on Wed at 12.30 – 1.30pm FY1s are not included in the on call rota

Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The Royal London Hospital Whitechapel E1 2AJ
-----------------------------	---

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Psychiatry
The department	Tower Hamlet Centre for Mental Health has 100 inpatient beds and runs outpatients from Mile End Hospital
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be based on the ward or in outpatients during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in psychiatry include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Managing and assessing acute psychiatric presentations • Diagnosis and treatment of common and complex psychiatric problems • Understanding of mental health legislation • Psychiatric liaison in an acute hospital
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital Mile End Site, Bancroft Road – Globe Ward
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Jan Falkowski
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctors with other members of the clinical team will provide care to inpatients and outpatients under clinical supervision from Dr Falkowski. Trainees are expected to attend structured teaching programmes provided by the department and also the FY1 teaching programme at the Royal London Hospital. The doctor will be responsible for such clinical duties as provided by Dr Falkowski but this will not include emergencies
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm : Cover available from ST4-6 and core trainees at all times. Mon am: 9.30 Management Round (Globe) Mon pm: Ward work Globe Ward Tues am: 9.30 – 13.00 Follow up OPD clinic (Mile End)

	Wed am: 10.00 Ward Round 12.30 – 13.45 FY1 teaching 13.00 Local academic programme Thurs am: 09.00 Supervision meeting 09.30 New Patient Clinic Fri am: 09.30 Management round Fri pm: 13.00 Liaison at Royal London Hospital (Dr Read) There is no on call for F1s.
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital – Mile End Site. Bancroft Road, London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Surgery Posts
The department	The Dept of surgery consists of sub-specialties in trauma, vascular, colorectal, upper GI and HPB. There are 15 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mr Ahmed, Mr Chan, Mr Walsh, Mr Flora, Mr Tai, Mr Sapsford, Mr Brohi, Ms Hughes, Mr Bhattacharya, Mr Hutchins and Mr Abraham
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. In addition they are responsible for managing the preadmission of surgical patients and managing acute surgical emergencies. They are also expected to attend regular audit and the FY1 structured teaching programme. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	FY1s will be ward based and working for one or two consultants within a firm. Working Day Monday – Friday 8am - 5pm FY1s also participate in a ward / emergency rota (which excludes nights). The on call arrangement is one week of 8am -5pm shifts or a week of 2pm – 10pm shifts on a rotation over 15 weeks cycle There is provision for consultant ward rounds and MDTs/ audit specific to each firm

Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel, London
-----------------------------	---

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barts and The London NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Anaesthetics
The department	The Anaesthetic Department at the Royal London Hospital
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1/F2 Doctors in hospital posts will be generally theatre based and one to one with designated consultant anaesthetist during the 'normal' working day in a supernumerary role <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Take a history and examine a patient -Identify and synthesise problems -Prescribe safely -Keep an accurate and relevant medical record -Manage time and clinical priorities effectively -Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues -Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care -Act in a professional manner at all times -Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems -Educate patients effectively -Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Royal London Hospital
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Drs Stephen Hallworth and Peter Saunders
Main duties of the placement	The F1/2 doctor is engaged in perioperative anaesthetic management in a supernumerary role but develop skills maintaining airway +/- aids and in intravenous access in an observed assisted or directly supervised way with standard learning methods. 10 weeks general anaesthesia will include 2 weeks specialist anaesthesia. The care of the critically ill patient will be provided by ITU secondment for a four week period as well as shadow emergency on call. They are expected to pass three month basic anaesthetic competencies as well as complete DOPS CBD Mini-Cex and maintain anaesthetic log book. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the F1/F2 teaching sessions as appropriate
Typical working pattern in this placement	48 hr week Normal working day Monday - Friday 0730-1730 includes one extended day with next day off 1:5 Shadow on call weekends 0800-2000 hrs with Monday off
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barts and the London NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel, London

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.